Sierra Engineering President ...

Aaron Bloom Guest On TV Show Speaks Of Sim One

Aaron Bloom, president of Sierra Engineering Co., will appear on KWHY-TV, Channel 22, on Friday, June 30th, at 3 p.m. and 7:15 p.m. on the program "Office of the President."

Moderator of the program, which features presidents of national corporations whose stock is of public interest, is former Congressman Donald L. Jackson, News Director of Channel 22 — the nation's first financial TV station.

During the program which was pre-taped, Mr. Bloom discusses the background of Sierra Engineering Co., products of the various divisions within the company and new product research and development. Shown in conjunction with the interview were many of Sierra's products including oxygen equipment, masks and helmets for the commercial, military and general aviation fields and medical products from Sierra's Medical Products Division which is located in Monrovia.

Moderator Don Jackson became so interested in the subjects that he asked Mr. Bloom to appear for a second time on "Office of the President." The second airing will be on Friday, July 8, at 3 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. Mr. Bloom answers specific questions put to him by Moderator Jackson regarding the revolutionary Sim One — the computer-controlled anesthesiology equipment, masks and helmets for the commercial, military and general aviation fields and medical products from Sierra's Medical Products Division which is located in Monrovia.

Questions will be entered from the floor at the conclusion.

Effie Green, secretary, will provide refreshments.

"Those people who really want to know about our program and also football in general will find it interesting," stated Keith McKay, president.

Sierra Madre parents, as well as Altadena and Pasadena parents, are invited, as their sons will all play on the same teams.

An Editorial

Sierra Madre has lost the services of one of the greatest, beloved Councilmen that they have ever been privileged to elect.

At this writing it is the definite statement of Frank R. Parks, that at the adjourned meeting of the Council on June 20, he will have his resignation on the table.

To us, of course, this is truly a great loss to our city. Frank Parks, Four Years as a Councilman, One Year as our Mayor, certainly put forth many, many hours of his time toward the betterment of our City and the people as a whole. He truly tried to weigh each problem with the thought in mind of benefit to the most, and the detriment of the least.

Frank has told us, he has definitely made up his mind, he has had it, and he is through. In sacrificing this man, we of this paper call upon each of you to work for the betterment of our city; let's not sacrifice another man nor another employee unless we thoroughly get to the bottom of the trouble, and all work together to solve the situation.

We feel it is the duty of Frank R. Parks, when he tenders his resignation, to set forth the full reasons why he has come to the end of his ropes. We encourage the publication of this resignation so all who are interested in their city may have the full text of the reason such a dedicated man can reach the "Abrupt End."

Parents Meeting Pop Warner Unit Plan Activities

This coming Tuesday, at 8 p.m., at Jefferson Recreation Center, 1501 E. Villa, Room 19, the Pasadena Pop Warner Parent's group will hold its first meeting of this season. Scheduled roundtable speakers are as follows: Bob Steelhead, head football coach at John Muir High; Jim Stocks, Pop Warner official for many years, and Claude Brown, Pasadena Pop Warner coach. Their topic will be: "Football—How It Benefits Boys."

Questions will be entered from the floor at the conclusion.

Effie Green, secretary, will provide refreshments.

"Those people who really want to know about our program and also football in general will find it interesting," stated Keith McKay, president.

Sierra Madre parents, as well as Altadena and Pasadena parents, are invited, as their sons will all play on the same teams.

SM Roses Win Three Awards

City of Sierra Madre won two first prizes and one third prize for the entries in the 1967 Southern California Rose Show which was held in Arcadia this year.

The roses were from our own City Park and were judged along with 600 other entries.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Baker Lloyd have sponsored this Rose Show. They have been sponsors of this event for seven years. American Rose Society judges, who are national judges, inspected and appraised the plants for two hours before bestowing the awards.

Family Fun Slated For 4th of July

You can buy happiness. So say the members of the Pasadena Fire Department who are sponsoring the happiest family show of the year in the Rose Bowl on July 4th, the 41st annual Circus and Fireworks Show. According to Battalion Fire Chief C. M. Ward, the 1967 performance will be the most exciting ever produced in the world famous Rose Bowl.

Residing over the entire evening as official host and master of ceremonies, will be one of television's most

Why The Flag Flies 24-Hours

Dear Editor:

In response to several inquiries received concerning the Lions Club's flying of the American Flag in observance of Flag Day and Week, I wish to clear up a misunderstanding with regard to flying the flag during evening hours.

The Department of Army's pamphlet entitled "Our Flag" — page 12 — on how to display the flag, indicates the American Flag may be displayed at night on special occasions when it is desired to produce a patriotic effect. Our flying the flag all week has been for the purpose of having a patriotic effect on the citizens during these troublesome times for our country.

We hope that the Lions Club participation in observing Flag Week will instill patriotism in all of our citizens to display the American Flag every day of the year, not just on holidays.

Vons Sell Stores To MacDonalds

Vons Grocery Co. on June 16, signed a contract for the sale of 40 of its supermarkets to the E. F. MacDonald Co. effective Monday, June 19, 1967. T. A. Von der Ahe, president, announced.

The sale of the stores follows a ruling of the U.S. Supreme Court requiring Vons to sell the Shopping Bag stores which it acquired in March, 1960. Of the 40 stores to be sold, 35 are the original "Shopping Bag" units and the other five are "Vons" markets.

After the effective date of the sale, both Vons and Shopping Bag will commence operations as individual companies under separate management.

After the flag salute and on a Councilman's pro-gative, Councilman Wagner challenged the meeting as being a legal meeting from the standpoint of adjournment of the June 13 meeting, and proper notice having been given. He left the meeting abruptly. Mayor King held the meeting at a standstill until Councilman Parks was brought to the table. At this point Councilman Wagner returned and Assistant City Attorney William Zeutzius declared the meeting in legal session. Councilman Frank Parks then addressed the chair and read to the Council and those in attendance at the meeting, his resignation, which in full is as follows: hx

"This is to inform you of my resignation from the City Council of the City of Sierra Madre as of this date.

My reason for this action is the Council's lack of confidence in City Commissions and City Personnel which is not conducive to progress or the common good of the City of Sierra Madre. The swimming pool issue will demonstrate the confidence the Council has in the Planning Commission who on two separate occasions approved it.

Statements that the Council has overspent its budget due to improper reports by City Personnel are untrue and unfair to City Personnel; the Council a year ago at Budget time knew what our financial picture was and nothing during the year happened to change that.

When I first agreed to serve the City on the Planning Commission some nine years ago, I did so with the feeling that I could contribute my time and efforts in a worthwhile direction; this was also true when I was elected to the Council, but unfortunately I no longer enjoy that feeling. I can say with a measure of pride that during that period I've never been accused of casting a vote for or against any issue on the basis of personalities.

I request that you set an early date for an election to fill the vacancy and any other matters which the citizens may want to be placed on the ballot.

To the people of Sierra Madre I say, Many Thanks for the support you've given me, especially in the last week through the phone calls and notes of appreciation.

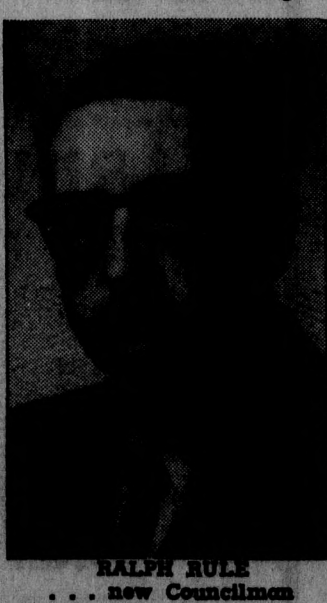

I want to thank the Press for reporting my comments of the past week accurately and not writing any meanings into them other than my own.

I wish you well in the tremendous task before you.

Sincerely,
Frank R. Parks"

Sorensen Speaks
Councilman Sorensen then addressed the chair with respect to the long service of Councilman Parks, and told of the fallacies of waiting for an election, or even a Council appointment, which if by-passed at this time, might take weeks or months

LOCKS AND KEYS — An extensive collection of antique and contemporary lock and keys has been brought to this area by Home Savings and Loan, and is now on display at the association's Pasadena office at 860 E. Colorado Blvd. The display will be on view for the public at Home through July 10. Shown with the giant key which symbolizes the collection are (left to right) John Regan, general manager of the Pasadena Chamber of Commerce, Kyle Farnloff, Home Savings teller, and Hal Huddleston, manager of Home's Pasadena office.

Protection Display Featured At Home Savings and Loan

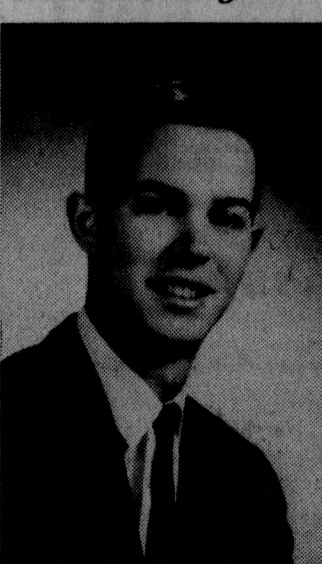

Mankind's 4,000 year development of lock protection and door ornamentation is traced in a comprehensive display of locks, keys and door hardware now at the Pasadena office of Home Savings and Loan, 860 E. Colorado Blvd.

The exhibition, entitled "Style and Security," is composed of representative objects from the historical section of the Yale Lock Collection, and is sponsored by Eaton Yale & Towne, Inc.

Among the unique items on display at Home Savings are: an Egyptian-type lock from Jerusalem of a style used at least 4,000 years

Mayor King Gets Army Promotion

Mayor Richard King has been promoted to the rank of Lieutenant Colonel, United States Army Reserve, according to an announcement from the United States Army Administration Center in St. Louis, Missouri.

Lieutenant Colonel King is a veteran of 24 years of service. He served in Europe and the Far East during World War II and has held various positions in Army Reserve units. He is presently assigned to the 6386th Logistic Study Group at Fort MacArthur.

During the annual two week active duty period this year, Lt. Col. King will serve as a training inspector at Camp San Luis Obispo for the period of July 1 to 15.

Fourth of July Parade Starts City Celebration

The 1967 July 4th parade will be larger than ever. So far, there have been more than 20 of the service clubs and organizations who have indicated their participation; and, with the opening of a commercial division, a number of merchants are joining in.

The parade will begin forming, at Lima St. and Sierra Madre Blvd. at 9 a.m. It will begin marching at 10 a.m. sharp. Under the direction of Harvey Birch and his committee, units and children will be positioned in their parade spots. Each child and unit will be presented a ribbon through the courtesy of the Chamber of Commerce.

Judging for parade prizes will begin at 9:30 sharp, in order that we may get names of winners to KMAX. Our radio station, under the sponsorship of several merchants, will be announcing parade units as they pass the Kersting Court area. The

Local Ballet Performers Star In 'Sleeping Beauty'

A life long dream of three very gifted Sierra Madrean ballet performers will come true when the Carrousel Theater opens its doors Wednesday, June 28, and present the beautiful, "Sleeping Beauty" Ballet.

Suzanne de Truan, Olga de Truan and Jay Du Gae are the three talented directors. "Sleeping Beauty" is only half their dream, the other half is the fact that the performance itself is a her parents, that she will benefit show or an organization very dear to their hearts, the Korean Orphan Relief.

For this dream to come true, 130 participants from the San Gabriel Valley and Pomona have donated their time and talents. Suzanne de Truan is the choreographer.

It is from Miss de Truan's childhood experiences in Korea, while touring with the poverty and starvation suffered by these people.

CHARRADA ABBOTT AND JAY DU GAЕ prepare for the opening of "Sleeping Beauty" Ballet in the Carrousel Theatre, on June 28. Miss Abbott will dance the role of sleeping beauty and Mr. Du Gae will dance the role of the prince. He is also one of the three directors of this enchanting fairy tale ballet.

Sierra Madre Police Make Fast Catch

On Monday morning, June 12, an eleven year old girl was walking to school and was allegedly accosted by a 32 year old male.

The suspect was alleged to have been waiting near his parked automobile just prior to the incident.

Two young boys, also, on their way to school, heard the victim screaming for help. When they arrived on the scene, the suspect left the scene hurriedly.

The two boys furnished the Sierra Madre Police Department with a description and license number of the suspect's car. This valuable piece of information led to the apprehension of the suspect. He was taken into custody at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, of the same day by Sierra Madre Police.

Every once in a while we must tell you about Cougar Nugarr ... Now there's a bright cat if I ever saw one ... and smart. Brother, this cat is so smart that I seriously doubt if I will ever catch a glimpse of him (her?)

—CT—

Of course it is not fair to you readers, you only get to read what is inside the letters that are stuffed under the door ... but all of us here at the News Office are kept in stitches with the beautiful art work that is displayed all over the envelopes. At times they are bigger envelopes and more art work, other times small envelopes and delicate art work. ... But boy, oh boy, are they a scream.

—CT—

We would dearly love to have an engraving made of the envelopes so all of you could see them ... but you see, our "libel insurance" just won't cover the entire project.

—CT—

The last envelope gave due accord to the new Miss Highlander 1967. It had a place for Don Jackson, Perry Arnold, and the best was of one of our Council members.

—CT—

Of course our Fire Chief Charley Brown had a very prominent spot on the envelope, as did Engineer Joe ... However, I do believe Cougar Nugarr got a little mixed up with the two Joe Grippis when reference was made to the Los Angeles Times, with a lapel button announcing that this art work was "Engineer."

—CT—

We, here at the News Office, have paid homage to Cougar Nugarr ... We have taken our time and prepared a special poster in his honor and we now have it placed in the front window. Wherever you are ... Cougar Nugarr, you are the greatest ... Please keep us laughing, with your serious remarks.

—CT—

About a year ago, I know some of you can remember, I wrote the column and dedicated it to the June Bride and Groom and how the stories of their wedding should be written to give honor to the Groom instead of the Bride ... Anyway, I have done a little research on the subject since that time, and here are the additions that I found.

—CT—

The modern bride sweeps down the aisle with all the self-satisfaction of a Diana returning from the hunt with a stag slung over her shoulder.

—CT—

Wedding pictures are always the same: the groom looks noble, dedicated and stumped; the bride always looks smug.

—CT—

But the June ritual wasn't always the victory celebration of the predatory female. In primitive times, the marriage relationship did not last long. Often the woman was simply a captured slave.

—CT—

Many persons believe that the best man today dates back to the time when a strong-armed friend of the groom held off the woman's relatives while the groom made his escape ... with the bride. The custom of carrying the bride over the threshold also probably dates back to the practice of capturing a wife.

THE LEGEND OF LEN

Len is a research biochemist. He is a specialist in chemistry with the compounds and processes occurring in organisms. (The chemistry of living organisms and vital processes). He is curious and continually questioning . . . seeking practical application of his knowledge.

Some time ago his boss, the Mead Johnson Laboratories, assigned him the task of finding an agent that would liquify mucus secretions which accumulate in pulmonary diseases, and complicate the treatment of cystic fibrosis, bronchitis, emphysema, post surgical recovery and many other conditions.

Len and his team of scientists began by studying the chemistry of mucus and the commonly occurring enzymes which tend to liquify mucus. From this starting point the team began their exploration of the unknown and months later the exciting results of an experiment indicated a point of discovery that a sulfur-containing amino acid would do the job. Additional experiments and analyses gave the program direction, and ultimately one amino acid was found to be superior to other known substances. From this lead, the team "zeroed in" and developed an entirely new product.

This product, which brings relief from suffering and saves the lives of many hospitalized patients, was named one of the four most outstanding new chemical entities in a recent year. So, if the funds for Len and his team had not been available from the profits of the company we, the public, would be deprived of this discovery and many others which are making life and living happier and healthier day after day, so a few cents a day saved on medication can be the worst kind of extravagance if patients must stay longer in hospitals at costs of $50 to $75 per day.

It is said that "music hath charms to soothe the savage beast." If you had asked me whether I agreed with that sage quotation any time in the last four years I would have shrieked. Being a person that is extremely sensitive to noise my last few years have been spent in a state of jangled nerves and involuntary trembling anytime the record player started to spin or the radio blasted forth. Being grossly outnumbered my only retreat from the "boss" group was earplugs and pillows over my head.

Oh, there were a few songs I liked. For instance I got "jazzed" over "May the Bird of Paradise Fly Up Your Nose." (Not sure whether it was the music or the whimsy that appealed to me.)

Suddenly, however, I am in the "in" group around our house. The music critics have suddenly discovered Glen Miller, The Ink Spots, Eddy Duchin, and some of those old toe tapping numbers that were born in my generation.

Once more I can tra-la-la, whistle, hum, and even sing the words to the songs. The children think I'm catching on at least to learn the words to their songs. I smile sweetly and don't mention the fact that they are taking me down the long road of memory lane. Who wants to rock the boat at this point.

We have even regressed here to the days of the jug band, and who'da thunk you could get music from grandmothers old wash board and laundry tub? The Jugs the "thing" . . .

(Hope the kids don't read this — they are even more intolerant of my trying to use their slang expressions than they are of my lack of appreciation of modern music.)

At this point I am just waiting for them to discover opera. Realize this is a bit far fetched, but I'm ready just in case with a whole collection of platters that would sink a ship. Galli Curci, in the Barber of Seville, Enrico Caruso singing in Aida, Pinza in Faust. As I said, I'll wait, they'll discover the classics in due time and maybe by then I'll find out what the new beat is all about . . .

Matt Slavin has just had one whirl of excitement. He and Jeanne had no sooner returned from their trip to the islands with Charlie and Phyllis Hardison, when it was time for some of his friends to rally round and help him celebrate his golden birthday. (Isn't that a delicate way to put it, Matt?)

The group started out with cocktails and gifts at Gordon and Fran Wright's, followed by dinner at Woody and Eddie's.

Some of the gals got a wicker rocking chair and sprayed it a lovely shade of pink. They equipped it with all of the necessities that would bring comfort to a man that has gone way over the hill. They had a variety of cute gifts, some to make him feel older and some to make him feel much too young . . .

Those celebrating with him were Nancy and Gene Rode, Patty Eldson, Charlie and Phyllis Hardison, Bill and Pat Olson, Don and Ethel Hays, Dom and Pat Giangregorio, Bob and Carmen Farmer, Ken Slavin, Dick and Jeannette Rechtenwald, Forrest and Jeanne Paxson, and Tony and Lois Boland.

The Al Dunns really had a week of it last week. Wednesday two of their children graduated, Laura from Marshall Jr. High School and Harlan from Pasadena High. In addition it was their anniversary.

On Friday night Laura had around 34 of her classmates in for a "Platter" dance and refreshments. Matter of fact I never heard of such a variety of refreshments. There were several dips, sandwiches, pizza, ice cream "Ding Dongs" and gallons of cold drinks. On Saturday night Harlan had around 25 couples in for a dancing party. "The Mother's Cookies" played for the evening.

Speaking of graduation parties, Cathy Crawford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Tom Crawford of Sierra Madre Villa, invited around 60 of her Marshall Jr. Hi graduating class for a dinner Sherri plans to attend FCC this summer and take some classes to help her towards her major, nursing. She plans to attend the University of San Francisco this fall. When she does she'll be six units into the freshman program for nursing major, which is a smart thing to do since they have to take a lot of classes.

Sister Mary Matthew came home to visit her family and home town for the first time in three years. This vivacious little nun is the daughter of Edward and Mildred Vaelka of 220 N. Sunnyside. She came home for five days, from June 1 to June 5. On June 3, they had an open house and more than 70 friends and relatives came to visit with her. Then her parents took her to the theatre, movies and Disneyland, among many more activities. They sure were on the go and Mrs. Vaelka says by the time they put her on the plane they were exhausted! She is now back at the convent in Redwood, Calif. Meanwhile, their oldest son, Derrick is up working in Yostemite and mountain climbing in his spare time; because of work he missed seeing his sister. is a sophomore in Arcadia High School. Dr. and Mrs. Koumas with their family plan to leave here on June 19 for a tour of England and Italy, stopping to visit Expo '67 in Montreal.

Honored guests present at the meeting were: Mrs. Irma Charleton, Past Mother Advisor, Conductress, Order of Eastern Star; Mrs. Gladys Watson, Order of Eastern Star, and Mr. Leroy Tidwell, father of Worthy Advisor, Martha Tidwell, and a member of the Gus Garrison Lodge No. 1273, 32nd Degree Mason and President of The Automobile Dealers Shriners Club, Almalakah, Los Angeles.

The parents of Rainbow Girls, Arcadia Assembly No. 131, were awakened in the early hours of the morning on June 10, by loud knocking on their front doors. Sleepy eyed girls were pulled out of their beds, and still in nightgowns, pajamas, robes and curlers in their hair, were carried away in cars to the home of their Worthy Advisor, Martha Tidwell for a kidnap breakfast.

At Martha's home they found Mr. Tidwell busy over a hot griddle, baking the most delicious hot cakes and bacon. Fruit and juice completed the menu. Well-fed the 40 girls were all returned to their homes safe and sound.

Looking forward to the end of school and celebrating the beginning of an active summer with an evening of swimming and dinner at the home of their Worthy Advisor, Martha Tidwell, on June 19 the Rainbow Girls of Arcadia Assembly, then proceeded to the home of Miss Nancy Cannon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rod Cannon in Arcadia where they spent the night at a slumber party.

A mother and daughter potluck dinner will be held on the next stated meeting, on the evening of June 29th, at the Masonic Temple in Arcadia, for the Arcadia Assembly No. 131 and the Mother's Club. It is hoped that all mothers of Rainbow Girls will attend the meeting, as there is so many new activities planned for this new term. Mrs. Leroy Tidwell will preside at the Mother's meeting. A reminder to all mothers that wafers will be available for the women to get their baking done before the summer heat begins.

How Much Longer?

Success does have its drawbacks. It seems that Pacific Coast shipping has fared so well in recent years that it doesn't need a representative on the Federal Maritime Commission. In fact, some Federal officials believe that such representation would even be superfluous.

One official, Commission Chairman Admiral John Harlee, has been so impressed with activities on this coast that he has said, "I don't think a person in Washington would have done any better for you than you are doing for yourselves." The Admiral of course, is correct. Pacific Coast ports handle about one-third of all U.S. waterborne commerce. Total value of this cargo approximates $4.8 billion.

The Admiral also believes that West Coast representation on the Commission "isn't tantamount to equal representation for the entire Pacific Coast." His point is well taken; it's just too bad the majority of steamship men and port executives don't agree with him. Not only does the Admiral's conviction find strong opposition on the Pacific Coast, it is not very welcome in the Gulf area either.

When T. R. Stetson, export manager of U.S. Borax & Chemical Corp., Los Angeles, was in the running for a commission appointment, the Port of Houston was one of the many agencies spearheading his campaign to land the Federal job.

Mr. Stetson, incidentally, was but one of several casualties from the Pacific Coast in the skirmish for the recently filled FMC vacancy. The appointment went to James Foster Farnsee, a barrister from Baltimore with a salient lack of professional maritime experience. Mr. Farnsee's background includes everything from teaching school to establishing a probationary system for juvenile offenders. These, while being worthy avocations, hardly contribute to Mr. Farnsee's knowledge of maritime affairs. However, according to the "New York Times," he is an avid yachtsman — which, in a circuitous way, might even facilitate his probes of the operational side of the maritime complex.

Be that as it may, Mr. Farnsee's appointment calls to mind something that has long bewildered Pacific Coast steamship men. We refer to the fact that since its inception in 1961, none of the FMC members have been from this coast.

"No Pacific Coast men yet appear on the roster of the Maritime Commission (the forerunner of FMC), although all five commissioners and a number of their assistants have been appointed."

"Exactly what, pray, is the idea? Is the Pacific Coast being neglected out of spite or out of ignorance?"

This lamentation appeared in a PACIFIC SHIPPER editorial published three decades ago. And during that 30-year span, while dozens of commissioners were appointed to the august body, the Pacific Coast has remained under a kind of Federal exile. How much longer will the regulatory body ignore the Pacific Coast?

1968 Election?

Election day 1968 is beginning to cast its shadow across the political landscape. Unless he chooses not to run for some presently unforeseen reason, President Johnson will be the Democratic standard bearer. Granting that it will not be easy, Republican strategists generally believe that President Johnson can be defeated in 1968, and because of this the Republican presidential nomination promises to be a hotly pursued political plum. Opinion polls taken just before convention time will strongly influence the final choice.

At the present moment, Mr. Nixon is front-runner for the nomination. This is the opinion of Republican leaders in all 50 states polled in a recent U. S. News & World report telephone survey. Mr. Romney is considered the most likely second choice. According to U. S. News, "Many top party people expect the Republican National Convention to turn into a head-on struggle between the forces of Mr. Nixon and those of Mr. Romney. If neither of these men gets a majority of the 1,333 delegates, the final choice could come from among half a dozen others, including 'favorite son' candidates."

Among these will be Governor Rockefeller of New York, Senator Charles Percy, the new senator from Illinois, Ronald Reagan, Governor of California, now the nation's most populous state, and James Rhodes, Governor of Ohio, who has proven his campaigning ability by impressive election victories in his own state. It is generally felt that if Mr. Nixon is to win the nomination, he must do so in the early stages of the convention. Although most Republicans consider him the most qualified, he carries with him the burden of having lost the presidential race in 1960 and the governorship of California in 1962. According to the U. S. News, Nixon is the betting choice of party officials in 25 states with 610 convention votes, but his commanding lead could quickly melt away if repeated balloting should give time for doubt of his winning ability to develop among delegates on the convention floor. If this should happen, Governor Romney is now expected to be next in line. His campaign organization will be devoted to establishing him as a national figure of decisive character with the force to carry a national election. But, some feel he is starting too early and so far there has not been the kind of enthusiasm toward Governor Romney that will be needed.

For the time being, Governor Romney has the wholehearted support of Governor Rockefeller, whose vast personal resources and contacts combined with his experience as Governor of New York, make him one of the most knowledgeable and influential figures on the Republican political scene. He has stated unequivocally that he is not in contention for the nomination, but the pressures on him to reconsider will be great as the convention deadline nears.

At this stage, neither Senator Charles Percy nor Ohio's Governor Rhodes are well enough known on the national scene to appear likely as contenders for the top position on the ticket, but this can change in the months ahead, and Senator Percy does have one advantage at present over any of the top-running contenders—he has no established powerful political enemies. Governor Reagan's meteoric rise in California, undimmed by several months in office, makes him a growing force of as yet undetermined proportions. Although the Eastern Wing of the Republican party apparently considers his nomination impossible, Newsweek magazine estimates that, "Reagan, merely by making himself slightly available, could pick up as many as 300 delegates, almost entirely at Nixon's expense." As California's favorite son, he is assured of another 86.

FREEDOM AT ANY PRICE

by
DR. HENRY V. WITTY

Management of this newspaper is not capable of answering questions to this column; however letters to the editor will be published.

Jack London, novelist and short-story writer, attended the University of California for one year, but his real education came from the life he lived as a longshoreman, sailor, wanderer, gold hunter in the Klondike, and war correspondent during the Russo-Japanese War.

Most of us at some point in our life have thrilled to the rugged adventure engendered by the tales of the "oyster pirate" turned author. Among the 50 books he wrote were the familiar "The Call of the Wild," "The Sea Wolf," and "White Fang."

A little publicized facet of the real Jack London was his ardent advocacy of Socialism. Historic research pin points the "swash-buckling" author as one of the founders of the Intercollegiate Socialist Society in 1905. This left-wing organization changed its name to the League for Industrial Democracy in 1921, thus dropping the tell-tale word "Socialist" and picking up the more acceptable word "democracy."

According to the Left Wing in Education, published by the Institute for Special Research: "On September 12, 1905, up over what was then Peck's Restaurant, 140 Fulton St., New York City, a group of avid socialist intellectuals met and organized a program and movement to reach and influence the faculty and student bodies of colleges and universities with socialist propaganda. The dynamo of this group was the famous writer, Jack London. The organization was called the Intercollegiate Socialist Society."

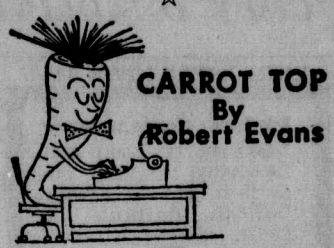

"Since Jack London was the scintillating and linguistic star of this galaxy, it is important to know something more about him than his general reading public knew of him then."

"In 1912, he wrote a book called 'Revolution' (MacMillan) in which he rather boldly showed his attitude toward those who had been successful and had accumulated something in the process. We are going to take your government, your palaces, and all your purple ease away from you," he boasted.

"He estimated the vast army of unmobilized dissidents throughout the world then, whom he called 'comrades,' at 7,000,000. In these restless 'have nots' was POWER, he said, to be reckoned with. 'They intend,' he declared, 'to destroy bourgeois society with most of its sweet ideals and dear moralities, and chiefest among these are those that group themselves under such heads as private ownership of capital, survival of the fittest, and patriotism — even patriotism.'"

"Well may rulers and ruling classes pause and consider. This is revolution . . . They intend nothing less than to destroy existing capitalist society and to take possession of the whole world . . . they meet violence with violence. Their hands are strong and they are unafraid.' Three lines below this last paragraph, London said — 'I am a revolutionist. I speak and I think of these assassins in Russia as 'my comrades.' London, obviously, by his

The honeymoon tradition also may have started in the days of marriage by capture. During the honeymoon, the groom waited, hoping his wife's parents would stop being angry.

In some primitive cultures, marriage by purchase was more common than marriage by capture. It left the bride with fewer bruises, but was harder on her pride, especially when her groom-to-be was thought her value was about the same as one small ox.

Anyway, folks, just remember times are constantly changing. . . . The younger generation do not necessarily like the way mama and papa became a mama and a papa, so be careful . . . things could be changed when you are not looking.

Do you know why the wedding ring is usually worn on the third finger of the left hand? Because years ago many people thought a vein or nerve in this finger ran directly to the heart. . . . No foolin', it's the truth.

In closing the column for this week, we will give you this little news item that came across my desk . . . and let you make your own remarks:

It seems that Postmaster General Lawrence O'Brien is getting results. A postcard mailed 18 years ago has finally reached its Baltimore, Md., address. The postcard was mailed September 16, 1948, in Emmetsburg, Iowa, was delivered recently to Walter B. Henderson of Baltimore. Explanation from the Postal Department: "It might have been left in an old mailbox and just got thrown on the bottom for a long time." . . . I feel that this is what happened to several checks that I thought I should have had by now . . . maybe I'll get 'em in 1968, I hope, I hope, I hope.

Ten Years Ago:
June 20, 1957

Approximately 135 students graduated from the Sierra Madre public and parochial schools in ceremonies Monday night. Sierra Madre School had the largest graduation class of 95 students. Ascension School had the smallest class, with three graduating.

Marian Ellen Oakley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Oakley of 90 Suffolk, became the bride of Thomas Carl Lister, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Lister of 910 Fallen Leaf Road. They were married June 8, at the Congregational Church by Rev. George Lindsay.

Bethany Church announced its formal dedication service will be Sunday afternoon, June 30. The entire community is invited to attend the ceremonies.

Twenty Years Ago:
June 19, 1947

Rev. Henry is the new pastor at the Nazarene Church. A public reception was held at the Park House to introduce the Reverend, his wife and their daughter, Elsie. They moved into the newly-decorated parsonage at 62 E. Highland.

Sierra Madre sent eight qualified forest fighters to fight the blaze sweeping along the Ridge Route in Los Padres National Forest. The men are: James Vernon, Richard and Julian La Lone, William Carlton, Jack Graham, Harold Stitt, H. Stuflick and Roy Warden.

Fire swept over 20 acres of the Hastings Ranch Road, north of Foothill, as a result millions leave them there!

No! It doesn't happen in one day. It takes four years.

And it's not really the years that count. It's the days . . . and the hours.

For when the scroll is in our hand . . . what are we?

We are what we have become . . . gradually . . . through all those hours, days, and years.

So the wiser among us recognize a degree for what it is; a recognition of knowledge and proficiency that have been attained.

And while we're acquiring that knowledge . . . and while we're applying that proficiency . . . we build into our hours, days and years the spiritual fibre of religious conviction and Christian service.

For gradually — we are becoming the men and women that one day we will be!

to accomplish. Mayor King spoke to the unnecessary expenditure of some $2,500 for a special election, and the time element involved. Councilman Sorensen then moved to accept the resignation of Councilman Parks with regret, which was seconded by Mayor King. Councilman Sorensen then stated the he felt the vacancy should be filled from the candidates at the last general City Election. He further stated that Councilwoman Maddox had voiced her approval of this method, which Mayor King collaborated. James Abernethy being the next man in line, but due to a "conflict of interest" must be eliminated from consideration. Since Ralph R. Rule was the next man receiving the highest number of votes at that election, his characteristics were lightly touched upon by Councilman Sorensen, after which he moved that Ralph R. Rule be appointed to fill the vacancy. This motion was quickly seconded by Mayor King. Pleas from Councilman Ed Wagner, that the matter be held over until the return of Councilwoman Maddox and a full Council went unheeded as Assistant City Attorney William J. Zeutzius ruled that any two Councilmen of a 3-member Council could fill the vacancy, Ralph R. Rule was appointed by a vote of 2-1.

Mayor King called upon Chief of Police Heasley to notify Mr. Rule of his appointment and request his presence at this meeting. Mr. Rule arrived and was immediately sworn into office by City Clerk L. Marie Warfel and took his place at the Council table.

All items on the agenda were completed by 10:15 the Council then spent the next forty-five minutes on the Preliminary Budget. The Council adjourned until 8 p.m. Monday June 26 for further discussion of the preliminary budget.

During work on the preliminary budget it was noted that several items of revenue in the current budget were over-estimated.

Personals are $1.25 and can be placed in an envelope and placed under the door... no name needed. No charges accepted.

Protection Display

ago; another Egyptian-type pearl inlaid lock and key from Abydos, Asia Minor, allegedly used by the Persian king, Darius III, circa 300 B.C.; some lock "masterpieces," each of which required up to 3,000 hours of work to produce; and a nineteenth century American door lock which was loaded with a percussion cap that fired when the knob was turned.

All objects in the antique lock section of the display have been authenticated by the late Leonard Heinrich, former lock and armor expert of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, and each wooden object has been examined by M. Frances Mofat, wood expert at the Museum. The display was most recently at the California Museum of Science and Industry in Exposition Park.

Home's Pasadena manager, Had Huddleston, states that the public is invited to view this rare collection Monday through Thursday, 9 to 4, or on Friday, 9 to 6. The exhibit will be at Home through Monday, July 10.

Policy

The Board of Trustees of Pasadena City College is in the midst of having discussions about the speaker policy at the college. After the appearance of Bettina Aptheker and Jerry Farber and other speakers that advocated peculiar things such as evading the draft, etc., a new policy has been adopted and there are some amendments being proposed to more clearly define the educational value and purpose of the speakers. The next meeting is on Wednesday, June 21, at 7:30 p.m. at the Student Union Building on the campus of PCC. Please attend if you can, to listen to the views of your representatives and express your own opinions.

Bruce Bell Residence Counselor

A Sierra Madre student has been named to residence hall counseling positions at the University of California, Santa Barbara.

Orientation, advising and counseling will be the duties of these students appointed to serve as resident assistants or assistant head residents.

Bruce S. Bell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde S. Bell of Sierra Madre, has been appointed resident assistant for the 1967-68 academic year at UCSB. Bell is a junior English major.

Resident assistants, serving either in university-owned or privately-owned halls at UCSB, will be working with a group of approximately 50 undergraduate students. The resident assistants will work in an advisory capacity in establishing the hall social and cultural calendar, will assist in the orientation of freshman students, and will be available to those who desire assistance in academic or personal concerns. A hall of approximately 400 undergraduate students will be the responsibility of those appointed assistant head residents. They will assist in the training of the resident assistants, will work in an advisory capacity with the elected hall officers, and will also aid in counseling.

Letters to The Editor . . .

Dear Editor:
The Sierra Madre News is performing a significant contribution to the success of the Sierra Madre Youth Employment Service through its articles and donated classified advertising. The Sierra Madre Youth Employment Service is sponsored by the Sierra Madre Civic Club and works closely with the Department of Employment in its operation. It is with pleasure that we tell you that there has been a substantial increase in placements since you inaugurated this advertising as a community service.

We thank you and the citizens of Sierra Madre for your support of the Sierra Madre Youth.

SM Students Graduate From UCSB

The largest graduating class in the history of the University of California, Santa Barbara, received degrees from UCSB Chancellor Vernon I. Cheadle in commencement ceremonies at the campus Bleacher Field Sunday, June 11.

Chancellor Cheadle, who also delivered the major address, conferred degrees on 1660 graduates. There were 1398 candidates for the Bachelor of Arts degree, 36 for the Bachelor of Science degree, 181 for the Master of Arts degree, 13 for the Master of Science degree, 8 for the Master of Fine Arts degree and 24 for the Doctor of Philosophy, the highest academic degree.

Student commencement speakers were Susan Lynne Johnston of Arcadia, and William Richard Pascoe, president of the senior class, of Riverside.

The commencement ceremonies followed the traditional Baccalaureate service which was held Sunday morning, also at the Bleacher Field. Dr. Raghaven Iyer, UCSB associate professor of political science, was the baccalaureate speaker.

Graduates from Sierra Madre include the following who received Bachelor of Arts degrees: Richard Lowell Black, 422 Pleasant Hill Lane, English; John Stephen Kell, 156 E. Highland, zoology; and Nathaniel Van De Verg, 86 E. Mira Monte, history.

You and Your Neighbors

by LYNNE RICHARDSON

Terry Davidson, son of Norman and Annemarie Davidson of 318 E. Laurel, graduated from the University of California at Riverside. He left for Germany to study at the University of Tübingen during this summer. When he returns he plans to attend UCLA medical school. Laureen, the Davidson's daughter, just returned home from University of California at Berkeley where she was studying architecture. Jeffrey, their youngest son, is leaving presently for a counseling position in a camp in the High Sierras.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ingram of 283 W. Laurel, attended their son Robert's graduation from Pasadena High School. Their week was made even more enjoyable by a visit from Mrs. Ingram's niece, Wanda Justesen, and her two boys, Chris and Pat. Mrs. Justesen also came down from Bak-ersfield to visit her parents Mr. and Mrs. James Leslie. Mrs. Justesen came down for a week and was able to attend Robert's graduation also.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Sage were vacationing in Hemet and Vista. They were able to relax, sightsee and enjoy the lovely green hills which have become even greener since our spring rainfalls.

Annual Volunteer Awards Luncheon Casa Colina Rehabilitation Center

The sixth annual Volunteer Awards Luncheon, held at Casa Colina Rehabilitation Center, Pomona, recently, saw the awarding of a 20-year plaque to Mrs. Ethie Eells, eight 1,000-hour pins, nine 500-hour pins, and ten 100-hour emblems. Volunteers honored at the ceremony are part of some 120 individuals who collectively donated over 20,000 hours to the gift-supported Center during the past year. "Recognition is our expression of appreciation of the persons who use their abilities and skills in a worthwhile activity . . . for the good of their fellowman," Director of Volunteer Services Mrs. Corliss L. Jones said at the time of presentation.

Guest speaker at the ceremony was Dr. Harold D. Fasnacht, president of La Verne College, who spoke of the long-range goals of that institution. Like Casa Colina, the local college draws upon community support in its efforts toward personalized education. Fasnacht was the guest of Harold Harris, Casa Colina cabinet and board of directors member, who was the recipient of a cup as the Volunteer Office's special "Friend of the Year." In addition to being La Verne College's special public relations representative, Harris is currently the president of the University Club. One thousand hour pins were awarded to: Mrs. F. L. Vander Linden, Mrs. Frank Morris, Miss Sallie McBride, Mrs. George Ford, Mrs. A. R. Nichols, Mrs. Mildred Fouts, Mrs. Gordon Whyte, Mrs. Loretta Martin, and Mrs. Eells.

Five hundred hour pins went to: Mrs. Maurice Good-ban, Mrs. Lester Sadler, Miss Rosa Peterson, Mrs. Genevieve Stillinger, Miss Elizabeth Stillinger, Miss Esther Smith, Mrs. Ruth Cassell, Mrs. John Pierce, and Mrs. Frank Dursa.

One hundred hour emblems were presented to: Mrs. Adam Shawkey, Mrs. Florence Baker, Mrs. Henry Boeckman, Mrs. Howard Peterson, Mrs. Joyce Wagner, Mrs. Frances Wheeler, Mrs. Del Henrich, Mrs. Troy House, Miss Agnes Haver-son, Miss Sophie Halverson, and Mrs. Alma Garriss.

50 Campsites Opened To Public In State Park

Fifty overnight campsites just completed in the Stone Creek area of Mt. San Jacinto Wilderness State Park in Riverside County were open to the public at 8 a.m. Thursday, June 15. The campground on the east side of the Banning-to-Idyllwild Road, approximately 4½ miles north of Idyllwild. The new facilities include tables, stoves, central water supply, chemical toilets, parking spurs and access roads.

The Stone Creek area was only recently added to the state park.

State Parks and Recreation Director William Penn Mott Jr. said the camping facilities opened there are of the immediate public use type and will serve until permanent facilities can be developed in the new area.

The park also offers 30 permanent overnight campsites near park headquarters at the northern edge of Idyllwild.

One hundred similar camping and picnicking sites were opened June 1 at the brand new Heart Bar State Park on State Highway 38 in the San Bernardino Mountains 30 miles east of Redlands.

The Stone Creek and Heart Bar developments are a part of the 1,150 new overnight campsites being opened this year in California's state park system.

Robert Yankie, professional dog trainer, sure has a large dog! His full name is "Lancer of Ambleside, CDX." Lancer is 35 inches in height and weighs between 150 and 160 pounds. He is quite a talented dog and one of his bigger television parts was in Walt Disney's "Gilroy." Wonder what type of animal is so high and big? He's an Irish Wolfhound and quite a beauty! "Ambleside" is the kennel Lancer is from. Mr. Yankie got Lancer where he was three months old. The "CDX" means he is a registered companion dog.

Mrs. Esther Mitchell didn't just go to San Diego to visit her son Tom, his wife Hildegard and her grandchildren, but the primary reason was to attend Tom's graduation from San Diego State College. He received his Master of Arts Degree and graduated in the Class of '67 which had 3,000 graduates. He will now teach history. They held a dinner in his honor that evening and celebrated his commendable achievement.

Appliance Engineers Conference

The annual National Conference of the Gas Appliance Engineers Society, held at Cleveland, Ohio, recently, elected to its presidency, Frank M. Day, Grayson Controls Division, Robertshaw Controls Company, Inc., Long Beach.

Mr. Day was one of the founder-members of the West Coast Chapter of GAES, and has been instrumental in making it the largest of all national chapters with a membership of 151 active members.

Mr. Day was also honored with the Art Theobald Award, which is awarded annually to the West Coast Chapter member who has contributed outstanding service to the chapter.

The general objectives of the society are to promote and improve educational and professional standards for technicians responsible for the development, design, and manufacture of gas appliances.

The West Coast Chapter of GAES sponsors the W. H. Vogan Memorial Scholarship at California State College at Los Angeles.

Mr. Day is married and lives at 625 Ramona, with his wife, Louise and his son, Guy. His three other children, Ronald, Ellen, and Robert are married and have provided six grandchildren.

Cynthia Kelley graduated in the Class of '67 from PHS and is excitedly looking forward to fall semester at Pasadena City College. She has her major all picked out, commercial art. Wallace, her brother has completed one year of military service. He's in the Army and stationed at Ft. Lewis, up in Washington State. He is a private first class now. Weekend leave gives him a chance to visit his relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Dodge, that live in the Puget Sound area, which is very close to Fort Lewis.

Lightweight summer clothes have proved a boon to man . . . especially to a working man who has to wear a suit all or part of a hot day. And many of the fabrics developed by manufacturers in recent years have added built-in bonuses: they resist wrinkling and staining to keep their "fresh pressed" look longer.

A word of warning, however: regular cleaning is still necessary for your summer clothing. Even when a coat still looks pressed and the trousers retain their crease, they may need to be cleaned. Normal stains and soiling still occur and these should not be left in to attack the fabric or become too deeply imbedded. And perspiration especially should not be left in the garment.

Such popular summer-weight fabrics as silks and silk combinations are especially vulnerable to perspiration. You may not see the deterioration of the fabric caused by perspiration, but it will show up as soon as the garment is cleaned. This is a case where what you don't see CAN hurt you.

Summer or winter, regular cleaning is the best way to preserve your clothing so that it will last longer, look better. Free mothproofing of everything we clean.

and swimming party on the day of their graduation.

They all had a wonderful time. Edna said they had over 125 barbecued hamburgers, hot dogs, potato salad, punch and all of the relishes and accompaniments that go with that type of dinner. It was climaxed with a big decorated cake. For music they had the 20th Century Fox band for their dancing pleasure.

Had a long talk with Peg Christianson the day after she and Ken returned from their four week trip to Europe.

They had gone over to attend the International Million Dollar Round-Table Conference for the Life Underwriters. This was the 40th anniversary of this conference and the only time that it has been held outside of the continental United States. In addition, it was the only time that the wives have ever been invited to join their husbands. On the last day of the conference they had outstanding speakers to address the wives. Peg said they were so good it would have been worth the trip for that one day, just to have the privilege of attending.

There were about 1500 agents in attendance. Ken was one of the agents representing Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance.

Afterwards, they traveled around Austria, Switzerland, and Italy for the balance of their time with the final evening in Paris where they had dinner with the Warren Bacons before returning to California.

One of the highlights of their entire trip was the time they spent in Vienna and they were able to do things there in two days without previous reservations that are unbelievable. First they were able to visit the palace where the Vienna Boys Choir lives and were shown through the entire place from top to bottom. They were invited to attend a private concert given by the boys right on the grounds.

The also managed to squeeze in a visit to the Schonbrunn Palace, they got seats to see the Spanish Riding School Show which is the most outstanding horsemanship in the world, and finally they were able to secure tickets for the Barber of Seville for an evening performance.

In Germany there were able to see Hitler's retreat, the Kehlstein Haus which is near Berchtesgarden, they visited the Jungfrau on one of the rare clear days, and in Capri they were able to go into the Blue Grotto just minutes before it was closed off because of high tides.

All in all they had a beautiful trip. This time they were able to spend more time in Rome, Florence, and Venice, which thrilled them beyond all reason.

They flew back in time to attend Kim's graduation from Marshall.

Family Fun Slated For the Fourth

popular stars, Bob Barker. TV fans are well acquainted with Bob, who for more than ten years has starred on "Truth Or Consequences." The granddaddy of all fireworks displays will salute our nation on its birthday with forests of exploding colors and set pieces portraying great moments in our history. Theme of the pyrotechnic display is "The Spirit of '76 in '67." Add to that the sensational Polack Bros. Circus and you have a show that will pack the evening with thrills and color. The 1967 Polack Bros. Circus has placed emphasis on thrill acts selected from throughout Europe and the Orient. Dwight and Bobby Moore's Mongrel Revue, reputed to have been Walt Disney's favorite dog act, will return by popular demand. Pat Anthony will present the largest mixed group of performing wild animals in the world; newly imported from the continent are the Babinis, juggling artists; Mlle. Joanne Pivoteau, lovely acrobat from Paris; the Antonin Smaha family, European premier exponents of horsemanship; and the Antonets, acrobatic marvels. The newest star and the one to travel the farthest to join Polack Bros. Circus is "Kenya" — 3½ year old African elephant. The only performing African elephant featured with any circus in America today, "Kenya" joins this famous elephant herd performing under the watchful eyes of Barbara and Bill Woodcock. Among other features are Pete and Petrova, daredevil acrobats; the fabulous Chaine' Dancers; and the dainty Ming Wong who performs amazing feats of daring while suspended in mid-air by her hair. All proceeds from this traditional family show go to a long line of Los Angeles charities. Tickets can be obtained at the Pasadena Central Fire Station, 145 E. Holly St.; phone SY 2-4165. All seats are reserved and are priced at $3, $2.50, $2 and $1 for children under 12.

Funeral Services Conducted For Elva May Reavis

Following a long illness, Mrs. Elva May Reavis passed away on June 16 at St. Luke Hospital. She was a resident of 551 Sturtevant Drive and lived in Sierra Madre 46 of the 67 years of her life. Mrs. Reavis was originally from Missouri and came to California 47 years ago. Those who are left to mourn her passing are: her husband, Mr. H. Clay Reavis of Sierra Madre; her son, Mr. H. Clay Reavis Jr. of Garden Grove; her daughter, Miss Linda Anne Reavis of Panorama City; her sisters, Mrs. Erma Friesen of Bakersfield and Mrs. Pearl Wilson of Bakersfield and her four grandchildren. Rev. David Howell officiated over the funeral services held in the Congregational Church of Sierra Madre on Tuesday, June 20, at 2 p.m. Ripple Mortuary was in charge of all the arrangements. Interment was in the Sierra Madre Cemetery.

Words of Moses Will Be Sermon

"Would God that all the Lord's people were prophets, and that the Lord would put his spirit upon them!" (Numbers 11:29). These words of Moses will conclude the responsive reading in a Bible lesson on "Christian Science," to be read in all branch churches on Sunday. Dr. and Mrs. R. P. Smith, of Canyon Road, attended their son Philip's graduation from the University of California at Santa Barbara. Now he plans to continue his schooling at Washington University, in St. Louis. He has received a Bachelor of Science Degree in Zoology, now he will continue in dentistry for his DDS Degree. Merrie Lynne, the Smith's daughter graduated from Arcadia High and plans to continue on to college at Kansas State this coming fall. Personals are $1.25 and can be placed in an envelope and placed under the door . . . no name needed. No charges accepted.

Dr. Parker To Again Be Guest Speaker

Santa Anita Church says: "We are happy to announce that Dr. William R. Parker will again be guest speaker at the 11 a.m. worship service at The Santa Anita Church, 226 W. Colorado Blvd., Arcadia, on June 25. Come and bring your friends to hear this fine speaker. His subject will be "Do You Know Who You Really Are?" Infant and child care is provided during the service." Children from kindergarten through eighth grade worship with their parents in the sanctuary for the first 15 minutes of the worship service. After a sermonette especially for them they go to their Junior Church graded classes for spiritual education. High school youth attend the Sunday morning service and have their evening meetings the first and third Sundays of the month at 7:30 p.m. Applications are now being accepted for the 1967-68 school year at the Santa Anita Church Day School. The school has used Mae Carden's Method of Learning and Comprehension for the past three years with remarkable results. If you are interested in enrolling your child, or wish to know more about the school, please call Dr. Barnhart, director of the school at 446-8206. There is a time for special prayer requests at the 11 a.m. meeting for all women on Thursday, June 29, led by Dr. Reina Lady Smith. Miss Mae Carden will hold courses and workshops through July 11 at the Santa Anita Day School. Please call 446-8206 for further information. Dr. Barnhart concludes with "Call 447-6162 to receive a blessing."

Invitational & League Meets

Swim Club Boosters Meet Plan Swim Club Schedule

The wet weather did not dampen the enthusiasm of close to 40 parents of Swim Team members at their morning meeting in the Youth Hut on Saturday, June 17, when a great deal was accomplished, according to Lincoln Paschall, acting chairman for the Swim Club Boosters. Coach Alan Hartley answered questions regarding the classification of the team members in three groupings and explained that the new grouping system has enabled the three coaches to give much more individual attention to the swimmers. He stressed that all members of the team will have an opportunity to swim in some league meets during the summer regardless of classification. All swimmers may compete in the various invitational meets, if they wish. The coaches make up the relay teams for any meet, he explained further, and they will fill in the meet entry forms with each swimmer's best time for any event. Registration fees for swim team were taken at this meeting. It was noted that the fee of $9 is up from last year because of the much extended work-out times and the greater use of the pool by the swim team. $1 of each fee is sent to the county to register each team member as a novice swimmer. Registration fee deadline is July 1. Los Angeles County League meet schedules will be released on July 1, and will be distributed to all team members. A monthly bulletin will be sent to all team families from the Boosters which will advise of meets coming up and other vital information. Uniform royal blue swim suits for boys and girls were described and orders placed. The Swim Club Boosters have obtained a discount on quantity orders of racing suits and the saving is considerable. Boys' suits can be ordered for $2.25, girls' suits for $3, when ordered through the Boosters. Warm-up shirts are also available through the Boosters. Emblems for the shirts and suits are 25 cents each, the actual higher cost being defrayed by funds raised during the recent Swim Club Car Wash. Requests for Booster members to fill committees for transportation, telephoning, timing and judging, and concession stand help were met with a good response, however, there are still a number of helpers needed. Those interested in working on any of these committees may contact Ellen Bullard at 355-8240, or leave their names at the pool any time during work-out sessions, which are from 7 to 8 a.m., 12:30 to 1:30, and 4:30 to 6 p.m. every day, Monday through Friday. Orders for swim suits, shirts may also be left at the pool at those times. The Southern California Municipal Athletic Federation (SMAF) is holding a clinic for Novice Swim Meet timers, judges, and starters on Thursday, June 22, at 7:30 p.m. at Barns Park Pool, 400 S. McPherson Ave., Monterey Park. This clinic is open to all interested adults at least 18 years of age, and includes instruction in stop watch operation, stroke and place judging, and starting. Persons attending should bring their stop watches.

Congregational Sunday Sermon

"Who are the really great of the earth?" will be the question asked by the Rev. David G. Howell at 10 a.m. worship service on Sunday at the Sierra Madre Congregational Church. Mr. Howell also questions, "Are we to judge men primarily by the exterior of their lives or how much space they fill in our society or how big they are in terms of the respect of their fellowmen?" Mr. Howell comes to the conclusion that the really great people of the earth are the unknown and he will speak about "The Unknown Great." Child care and church school classes continue every Sunday morning at 10 for children in nursery, primary, and all grades through sixth grade. Junior and senior high pupils are invited to attend the regular worship service each Sunday. Thursday, June 22, the weekly prayer meeting will be held from 10:30 to 11:30 in the morning at the home of Mrs. Edward Murphy, 1015 E. Grand View. All persons are welcome.

Lorance Lisle

Lehigh University Commencement on the Bethlehem, Penna., campus on June 12 was Lorance Dix Lisle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lorance W. Lisle, 305 E. Orange Grove Ave., who received the bachelor of arts degree with a major in geology. Lorance received a commission as 2nd lieutenant in the U.S. Army Reserves on June 12, in the Corps of Engineers. He was an officer of the Pershing Rifles, Company FS. He is a member of: Canterbury Club, Acolytes Guild, Railroad Club, Society of American Military Engineers and Young Republicans. He plans to attend graduate school at Lehigh University.

Alpha Omicron Pi 47th Convention

The 47th International Convention of the Alpha Omicron Pi sorority will draw three members from the southland. They will represent one of the 87 collegiate and 179 alumnae groups attending the June 17-22 meeting held at the Grand Hotel, Mackinac Island, Michigan.

Mrs. W. W. Wagner, president of the Pasadena Alumnae Chapter and graduate of Rho Chapter, Northwestern University will discuss the activities of the Pasadena group. She will stress the group's philanthropic project, making puppets to give local hospitals for all incoming youngsters. Hospitals have noted these little hand "friends" help calm anxious children in their new experience.

Also attending is Helen Haller, graduate Omega Chapter, Miami University, Ohio, who served as a National President from 1939 to 1941, and Lucille Wright, graduate Beta Theta Chapter at Butler in Indianapolis, Indiana.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:
The following is an open letter to the residents of this community.

To the People of Sierra Madre:
Last night, my father, Mr. Parks, walked out of the city council meeting. With him walked almost ten years of unselfish service to the community. Many of you, if you think back, will remember the many times my father listened to your problems. He was always ready to listen and give advice. Many of you will also remember the times when you turned around and stabbed him in the back without readily listening to his recommendations on another issue.

I know how many times fellow citizens have sat at length with my father and discussed important matters in our living room. And I remember very well the telephone calls we received in the middle of the night complaining about something neither he nor the police or fire departments could do anything about. I remember all of this, and so does my family. We did not mind the living room discussions, nor the many telephone calls because we were proud of our father, proud that others felt he could help them. We still are proud of him.

I am writing this letter to ask those of you, who are so quick to condemn, to think of the many services he has done for our community. And will you also remember the many things he would have accomplished if others were as ready to listen as he is and was.

FROM THE Fire Side

The old cliché of "Don't bite off more than you can chew!" has always been practiced and preached in the fire department. The chief has always said, "If you need help, shout out." Now it seems there has been a complication. One of the firemen showed up at a fire the other night minus his store-boughten choppers! Now you know damn well he couldn't even begin to bite, let alone chew. We won't tell you which of the two Bob's it was; but it wasn't "New Store Teeth" Clark.

At that same fire Chief Brown showed up with his jump suit on over his pajamas. We haven't figured whether it's so he can jump on the toothless fireman, or just so he can jump back in bed as soon as the fire equipment is secured.

Joe Grippi really got carried away at the meeting

Tucker and Evans slipped a double male connection between the last two sections of hose as it was being loaded on the new Crown. It sure was a he . . . of a feeling to look down and find a male connection on the end to be put on to the four-way hydrant connector. All we could think about was unloading 1700 feet of hose to turn it around. Boy, that was a real shaker!

Police Officials Present the Truth About LSD and Possible Side Effects On Users

This is part of a continuing series on LSD, presented as a public service by the Sierra Madre News. It is taken from Sierra Madre Police Training Manual and was prepared by Los Angeles Police Dept.

Part III

Can LSD Be Detected In the Body?
There is no test yet developed to detect the drug inside the body.(2)

Is LSD Addictive?
LSD is not considered physically addictive because the need for ever higher doses does not occur nor are withdrawal effects noted when it is abruptly discontinued. Some people have become habituated to the drug and they take it frequently for its psychological effects.

It is not known what the long term cumulative effects are in man. LSD is being used by some as a way of life.(1)

The process is much the same as heroin addiction. LSD users don't like the reality of life so they seek repetitive gratification through a drug instead of trying to change reality. They build it in as a way of life and it becomes a dangerous thing. Those who use the drug become psychologically hooked.

Studies made at General Hospital and UCLA's Neuropsychiatric Institute reveal a high number of those requiring hospitalization are habitual users. Some at UCLA had taken the drug 50 to 60 times.(4)

Is There An Antidote For A Bad Trip?

Tranquilizers and barbiturates have been used but are not always effective.(2) mans is unknown. A death directly due to LSD has not been reported.(1)

There is no control data on large doses because researchers will not give that much to humans. It is a reasonable conclusion that the larger the dose the more chance of brain damage.(5)

What Is the Status of The Therapeutic Use of LSD?
LSD has been used for alcoholics to help them stop drinking. It has been used in patients dying of cancer to alleviate the pain and help them die a more "dignified" death. It has been used as psychotherapeutic aid to increase insight, life repressions, and with autistic children to increase socialization. More extensive claims have been made for LSD. It has been cited as a specific cure for frigidity, impotence and homosexuality.

It is difficult to evaluate just what therapeutic efficacy LSD does possess. Extravagant claims and total disclaimers now vie in an atmosphere of hysteria. Several points are noteworthy. For an experiment to be valid, it should be possible to reproduce the results. This has not yet been convincingly done in the therapeutic approach to LSD.

In addition the attitude of the researcher is vital. Researchers, themselves LSD users, have become so enthusiastic that they even refused to consider psychosis and suicide as bad results. Particularly with LSD work, a with hypnosis, one's attitude and expectations are vital factors in the results one achieves.(2)

Is LSD Dangerous?
Until more is known about the short — and long-term effects of LSD, as well as how to predict who will have a bad experience, it must be considered a very dangerous drug.(2)

You and Your Neighbors

by LYNN RICHARDSON

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Pendergast, of 78 W. Highland, had a pleasant weekend. They drove to Canoga Park for a family dinner Sunday afternoon. Their son and daughter in law, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Pendergast, Jr., hosted the dinner at their house. Mr. and Mrs. William Shaw of San Gabriel also attended. Mr. Pendergast's aunt, Mrs. Mabel Beidler of Sierra Madre, completed the happy gathering. All enjoyed the delicious dinner and a chance to catch up on all the family news.

Denny Lawyer and his wife Jane, formerly Jane Mobus of Sierra Madre, are home from Florida where he has been stationed at Eglin Air Force Base. They are staying with Denny's parents, Richard and Dottie Lawyer. During his twenty day leave, they were able to see Denny's sister Linda graduate from his old alma mater, Pasadena High School. Denny has been in the Air Force for a year and a half, he signed up for four years. Between July 20 and 30, he plans to leave for Thailand. Jane, will live here in Sierra Madre until her husband returns from his overseas duty.

Mrs. Pat Starky New President Of Civic Club

Mrs. John (Pat) Starky will serve a second term as president of Civic Club. The officers elected to serve with her are Mrs. Ashleigh Buchanan and Mrs. Frank Alfrey, vice presidents; Mrs. Jack Farmer and Mrs. Glenn Johnson, secretaries; Mrs. John Matter, treasurer; and Mrs. James Vine, parliamentarian. The installation took place after a delicious dinner enjoyed by 30 members, at the Antique Inn. The outgoing board gave Mrs. Starky a silver platter and goblet set.

Civic Club will hold its philanthropy meeting at the home of Mrs. Keith Mankin on June 22, at 8 o'clock p.m.

Donald Hill Completes USC Education Course

Donald Hill of 335 Santa Anita, is one of 44 educators to complete the University of Southern California School of Education's Mid-Career Advanced Development Program for Practicing Professionals.

The program is designed to enable career educational leaders to study, in depth, current and future problems of education.

The program is aimed at elementary school administrators, secondary school administrators, curriculum directors and coordinators, and pupil personnel directors.

The 44 graduates of the program have completed 24 semester units, representing one full year of graduate study, and will receive a Specialist's Certificate.

Hill is principal of the Eugene Field Elementary School in Pasadena.

At this time the club will distribute profits realized from its many activities this year.

SPORTS AS Hank Ives SEES IT

AROUND THE SPORTS BEAT . . .

TOUCHING ALL THE BASES and all that sort of thing . . . Arcadia's Chuck Jones is moving up in motorcycle racing standings. He is now in fourth place in the year's standings after getting a win at Ascot recently. Not bad for a college man.

WITH THE ALL-STAR GAME just around the corner let's take a look at the prospects.

THE NATIONAL LEAGUE TEAM could line up something like this: Clemente, Brock and Aaron in the outfield; Torre behind the plate; Cepeda, Mabeorski, Alley and maybe Cincinnati's Tony Perez around the horn; Marichal, Lemasster, Veale, Gibson, Cuellar and Drysdale on the hill.

The Nationals would have some great backup men. McCarver and Haller both deserve catching opportunities. Then there are Mays, Rose, Williams, Staub and Tommie Davis for outfield reserves with Allen, Hunt, Javier and Santo waiting in the infield wings.

THE AMERICAN LEAGUE'S WON'T exactly suffer if they have to play Kaline, Frank Robinson and Yastrzemski in the outfield, Freese behind the plate, with Killebrew, McAuliffe (no complaints if it were Knoop), Petrolcelli and Brooks Robinson in the infield. The mound staff could be Chance, Wilson, Peters, Horlen, McGlothlin and Lomborg.

Not bad with such reserves as Mincher, Agee, Alvis, Horton, Versalles, Frank Howard and Knoop waiting in the dugout. Oddly enough probably only a pitcher (Stottlemyre or Downing) is likely to represent the once mighty Yankees. Mantle is hitting only .220 and Peptide lags far behind at least three other first-sackers.

PASADENA'S LANCERS are receiving many kudos for their fine athletic program. No wonder with eight championships and no worse than second in the other two sports. Add to that a pair of state titles in basketball and baseball and you can see why the ambitious program has met with success.

ONE THING ABOUT the boy's baseball program, there is no such thing as a sure thing. The Reds beat the Tigers one week .25-7 and the next week the Tigers reversed the score 19-11.

I KNOW A FEW horse type followers who would like to see Ruken peddled to the glue-factory. Promises, promises. Well Ruken goes again Saturday in the $50,000 added Cinema Handicap at one mile and one-eighth. According to the form Louis Rowan's charger should be well down the track when Tumble Wind wins the race, but Old Hankus is a tenacious sort and will put just two more bucks on Ruken.

THE UNITED STATES TEAM that will face the British Commonwealth best in the Coliseum the weekend of July 8 and 9, will be picked from the participants at this week's AAU finals in Bakersfield. Jerry Proctor of course will be attempting to gain a spot on the team against the likes of Ralph Boston, Bob Beamon, Gayle Hopkins and Bill Miller. The top three performers in Bakerstown will be on Jim Bush's U.S. squad. Good luck Jerry.

OLD HANKUS had a chat with Nebraska's jet-footed wonder Charley Greene after his loss to Jim Hines at Modesto. Charley claimed he had worked too long on the 220 and just wasn't ready for the quick start necessary out of the starting blocks. This lad just isn't used to getting beat and his 9.1 at Provo proves he is ready for any rematch with Hines. Smith, Miller or you name 'em.

ACTUALLY GREENE and Hines appear to be cinches to make the U.S. team but third spot is really up for grabs. This lad Willie Turner is really quick. Tommie Smith will probably stick to his specialty, the 220-yard dash or the 200 meter.

Alan Hartley, a junior at Wesleyan University from this community, has been awarded a summer study grant in Government as part of the university's program to support outstanding students in programs of independent study during the summer months. The amount of the grant, earned through Summer Study Grant funds, is $600. Hartley, a graduate of Pasadena High School, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Hartley of 31 E. Highland Ave. His summer program of study will be under the direction of Fred I. Greenstein, Professor of Government at Wesleyan. Forty-five underclassmen and graduating seniors received Wesleyan summer study grants for 1967. Most of the "summer internships" are carried out in the home-town areas, while many are conducted at Wesleyan, at other schools, and on service projects in other communities.

Valley Sales Going Up

Retail sales in the San Gabriel Valley have increased more than four-fold in the past 18 years.

The combined retail trade volume of the incorporated cities in the San Gabriel Valley region is estimated at $1,830,000,000 for 1966, compared with $1,573,000,000 in 1963, and about $1 billion in 1958, only eight years ago.

According to Wilbur McCann, economic consultant, if the San Gabriel Valley were one city, it would rank sixth in population among the Nation's largest cities; and its position in retail trade would probably be seventh in the U.S.

The greater San Gabriel Valley embraces some 348 square miles and is comprised of 28 separate incorporated cities and innumerable communities in unincorporated territory. Reliable statistics are not available for the unincorporated portions, but retail sales data for cities alone provide ample proof of the growing importance of this region as a trade area.

Figures in the chart, based on the combined retail trade volume of the incorporated cities in the San Gabriel Valley, were obtained from the U.S. Census of Business by Wilbur McCann, economic consultant.

SGV Philharmonic Friends Meeting

Division Chairmen of the San Gabriel Valley Friends of the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra met at the San Gabriel home of Mrs. Walter W. Attrill recently to lay plans for their current campaign to support the orchestra's 1967-68 season in Pasadena. Newly formed last season, the organization is the co-sponsor with the Pasadena Philharmonic Committee of the orchestra's annual series of concerts in Pasadena Civic Auditorium. Attending the meeting was Mrs. Arthur Benedict, Jr., of this community.

Support Your Hometown Newspaper and keep your Community Alive.

Fourth of July Parade Starts

$5 prizes have been donated by the Civic Club, Lions Club, Fire Department, Kiwanis Club, and the Friends of the Library.

Prizes will be awarded to children 12 and under in the following categories: Best boy costume, best girl costume, best decorated vehicle, most originally decorated group (other than organized groups). Parade prizes will be awarded by Mr. Hugh Warden at the beginning of the evening program in Sierra Vista Park. Invitations to all Sierra Madre children to participate were sent out through the schools.

Once again Louis Van Iersel has consented to be the grand marshal. The VFW will provide a color guard for him. This year we will also have the Sixth District Drill Team, in addition to our own groups: The Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, Cub Scouts, Camp Fire Girls, Kiwanis Club, Lions Club, Red Cross and United Way, Republican Club, Rose Float Association, Little League, Search and Rescue Team, Fire Department, Chamber of Commerce, Sierra Madre Nursery Association, Civic Club, Candy Strippers, Toy Soldiers, the Antique Auto and several other groups.

The possibility we may have some TV coverage has lent even greater excitement to this year's event.

Timely Topics

How well do you understand modern Chinese? The Great Leap Forward! Backyard furnaces! Communes! Cottage factories! The Mandate of Heaven! Listen to "Timely Topics," Sunday evening, June 25, at 7:30, when a panel discussion, "Mainland China Under Communist Rule, 1949 to 1966," will be presented by the League of Women Voters of Pasadena. A public service feature of station KPCC AM (1240) and FM 106.7. Participants are Mrs. Traute Moore, director of China Study, Mrs. Mary Lois Nevins, and Mrs. Zita Dow.

CORPORATE/INDIVIDUAL INVESTMENT MANAGEMENT...

Everyone, whether a member of a corporation or an individual, wants to invest money wisely. Interpretation of the word wisely is a personal one. The investment path we select should be the result of long and careful consideration of all available facts. Investment-cognizant individuals, as well as an increasing number of corporations, estates and fiduciaries place their funds with a FEDERAL savings and loan association because they realize their funds are safe and will earn high dividends until such time as these funds may be needed for other purposes.

JOHN I. BOLEN

As a business and tax consultant, operating his own firm for thirty-three years, he has acquired a tremendous reservoir of experience in tax and investment planning as they apply to both individuals and corporations. In his approach to an investment problem, Mr. Bolen considers both present (immediate) and long-term benefits and gains, including family protection and planning for future requirements. While serving an active clientele, he has been a member of the Board of Directors of the Association since 1946 and vice president. He is also a director of several major corporations and a former director of two national banks. As a licensed public accountant in California and Washington, he has been admitted to practice before the Tax Court of the United States, and the United States Treasury Department.

of a carelessly tossed cigarette. Sierra Madre volunteer firemen and police battled the blaze for two hours, until they got it subdued and completely under control.

Thirty Years Ago:
June 18, 1937

Sierra Merchants Softball Club of Sierra Madre is way out in front this season. They have won seven straight games in a row. Last Friday evening, they defeated the strong Epworth A. P. of Los Angeles, one of the best clubs this year. The game was witnessed by the largest crowd of the year and they sure enjoyed seeing their team show off for them!

Sierra Madre has the highest number of high school graduates in its history—49 students. Yes, 49 students will graduate from various high schools, both private and public, to make their senior class the largest in Sierra Madre's history!

Lois Lovell, 13-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lovell, tried her luck at sea fishing while at Huntington Beach last week. She came up with a surprise when she pulled in a baby shark on her line.

Freedom

peculiar phrasing, was lifting his ideas right out of Karl Marx's Communist Manifesto. The 1917 Bolshevik Revolution in Russia had not yet occurred, but the assassins he mentioned were inaction. Lenin had already tried his abortive uprising of 1905, and anarchy was spreading.

"It should be clear from all the foregoing that Jack London, as the dynamic and aggressive president of the new organization (Inter-collegiate Socialist Society), would inevitably work to spread in America the agitation that was then agitating Russia. This new organization's purpose was to utilize the vast educational equipment and facilities in this country to build a socialist 'teaching bureaucracy' and in that way help mold the minds of campus 'future generations' with prejudice against the American private enterprise way of life."

If all that has contributed to our great American heritage could speak today, the words would be: "You thought we were long dead and buried in the dusty past? No, son, when we die in the hearts and minds of Americans, then will our principles and your liberties cease to exist!"

Casa Colina Rehabilitation Center Names Directors & Cabinet Members

Casa Colina Rehabilitation Center (Pomona) named two Claremonters and one Arcadian to its Board of Directors at the annual meeting held last week at the Walnut Valley Country Club.

Named were: William W. Cline, general manager of the Sun Marine Drilling Company in Los Angeles; Harold Harris, retired executive vice president of Enterprise Railway Equipment Company of Chicago; and Ernest L. Mock, executive vice president and director of Claremont Savings and Loan Association.

A graduate of the Colorado School of Mines, Mr. Cline has been in the drilling business for some 25 years. He is a member of Theta Tau Engineering Fraternity, the Petroleum Club of Los Angeles, and the Ammandale Country Club.

Mr. Harris, who has served as director of the Railway Program Institute, Canadian Railway Executive Club, New York Railway Club, Western Railway Club, and Chicago Traffic Club, is an alumnus of Northwestern University and DePaul University's College of Commerce. He also serves as special public relations representative of La Verne College, and currently is president of the University Club.

Toastmistresses Elect Officers For Council Nine

A past president of the Claremont Chamber of Commerce, Mock served as a major in the U.S. Army Air Corps in World War II and was awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross. He is a graduate of Indiana University and a director of the U.S.O. and Salvation Army prior to his move to Claremont.

Guest speaker at the meeting, George Tarjan, M.D., director of the Mental Retardation Program at the University of California at Los Angeles, and former director of Pacific State Hospital delivered an address on "Emotional Aspects of Long-Term Illness."

Progress at the gift-supported Center during the past year was highlighted in talks given by Richard T. Moore, administrator; Ralph M. Perry, M.D., medical director, and John C. Sillman, president and treasurer of the Board of Directors, respectively. Concluding remarks made by Cabinet member, Ernest C. Colwell, M.D., emphasized that rehabilitation is a community responsibility.

Highlighted during the session was a changing trend in the source of funding hospital care in light of increasing reliance upon the taxpayer in the form of Medicare and a subsequent lessening of responsibility to both the corporate and individual contributor. With this, it was pointed out, may come the danger of eventual emphasis upon quantity rather than quality, an accentuation on the standardization of quality, and a diminishing in the thrust of innovations and efforts toward excellence.

Casa Colina Rehabilitation Center also can boast of six new Cabinet members. The gift-supported institution's 21-year record of distinguished service to the handicapped, without regard to their ability to pay or their geographic origin, has once again attracted the services of prominent local citizens.

They are: John Armstrong: Vice president of Armstrong Nurseries. Armstrong is married and the father of two children. They make their home in Cucamonga.

Margaret Castle: President of Castle Industries, manufacturers of precision aircraft parts. Mrs. Castle, a new resident of Upland, recently moved from Washington state.

Forrest Doucette: Member of the Los Angeles Press Club and California Newspaper Publishers' Association. The author of the Arizona Year Book (1930), Doucette lives in Upland.

Richard Johnson: Manager of the First Western Bank of Pomona. A graduate of the University of Pittsburgh, Johnson and his wife reside in Temple City.

Bernard Ousley: An attorney with law offices in Pomona. Ousley, a member of the Pomona Valley and Los Angeles County Bar Associations, makes his home with his wife in Pomona. Vaughn Lisum: vice president of the C.U.N.A. Life Insurance Company of Pomona. Lisum is a resident of Diamond Bar.

Other officers installed for the 1967-68 Toastmistress year were Miss Margaret Setzer of Pasadena, vice chairman; Mrs. Vera Kiestanor of Los Angeles, recording secretary; Mrs. Virginia Colbert of Whittier, corresponding secretary, and Miss Dinah Evans of Los Angeles, treasurer.

As retiring chairman, Mrs. H. Kenneth Hutchinson of Alhambra presented and presented club awards and trophies for the year.

Pasa Recreation Hiking Program Free For Public

Local trails and hiking techniques was among the topics covered during the seventh annual introduction to hiking program offered free to the public by the Pasadena Department of Recreation, at Jefferson Recreation Center, 1501 E. Villa St., Tuesday, June 20, 7:45 to 9:45 p.m.

Hiking enthusiasts, new-comers, youth group leaders and families going camping benefit from the class.

Knapsacking, backpacking, shoes and equipment, hiking safety and types of hikes was presented by qualified instructors.

Co-chairmen were Walter Powell, author of the "Backpack Manual" and Ted Pearson, Pasadena Department of Recreation. Co-operating is the Altadena Mountain Rescue Squad and the U.S. Forest Service.

An evening family flashlight hike up the Mt. Wilson Toll Road to Hemmiger Flats, will be conducted for class members and the public on Friday, June 23, 6:45 to approximately 10:15 p.m. Children must be accompanied by adults and all hiking members of the family are invited.

Once again, people are investing in better homes.

Pretty smart of them.

People buy bigger and better homes for lots of good reasons.

They need more room. They want a better neighborhood. They'd like a newer home—a home with more modern conveniences. And so on.

But the best reason for moving up is that a better house is a better investment.

The average person has few opportunities for investing money as sound as real estate. As the years go by, your home and lot appreciate in-step with the economy. And in proportion to your original investment. What's more, when you invest in a home, you and your family can immediately enjoy the benefits.

If you've been thinking about moving up, right now is an ideal time to act. Money for home loans is flowing again. Interest rates are down. The selection is good. Prices are in line.

But the sooner you do it, the better. Higher building costs are adding about 5% a year to the cost of new homes. Waiting just one year could add $1,000 to a $20,000 house.

And population increases are raising the price of land. The population in the San Gabriel Valley has doubled in the past 15 years. Further, more people diminish the selection of choice properties.

So why wait? If you buy now, chances are you'll pay less, get more for your money and you can start enjoying all the comforts of your new home in the bargain.

Your San Gabriel Valley Realtor can help you find out what your present house is worth and show you what's on the market in the neighborhood you like. He knows the area. He has the answers to your questions about taxes, financing, schools, etc. Put him to work for you. Today.

Letters to The Editor . . .

Dear Editor:

I take this opportunity to express the gratitude of the Los Angeles County Health Department for your assistance during our "Stop Measles" week program in Los Angeles County.

You undoubtedly are interested in knowing that more than 92,000 children were protected through immunizations during the 5-day period, June 1-5.

Many of the parents of these children could not have been made aware of the importance of immunization, or informed of the availability of immunization services, if it had not been for your conscientious coverage.

I extend my personal gratitude for your community spirit and cooperation in this endeavor.

Thanks.

—G. A. Heidbreder,
M.D., M.P.M.
Health Officer

Dear Editor:

I wish to extend my deep appreciation for the expedient, courteous and considerate manner in which the Sierra Madre Fire Department handled a fire in our home last month.

I was particularly impressed with their deep concern in keeping the damage to a minimum, by covering rugs, removing dishes, appliances and other valuables.

When the fire was extinguished they removed the debris, mopped up the water and used a spray deodorant to remove the smoke odor.

The people of Sierra Madre are indeed fortunate to have such an outstanding group of Volunteer Firemen at their service.

—Mrs. C. E. Patterson

Dear Editor:

On behalf of the Sierra Madre, Don Benito, Girl Scouts, may I express our thanks and gratitude for the fine publicity you have so generously given us this past year.

—Norma Kline,
Publicity Chmn.

American Legion Award Given To James Jarvis

James Jarvis, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Jarvis, was the proud recipient of the American Legion Award and the Chicago Tribune Award. He received them for his outstanding scholastic achievement in military sciences.

Jim was one of the few juniors at University of Berkeley to be so honored. The awards are usually awarded to seniors. He is a member of the ROTC at Berkeley.

With geology and geography as his composite major and chemistry as his minor he hopes to graduate next year and make the military his career.

Mr. and Mrs. Jarvis were invited by the Defense Department to go up to the university and see their son honored. They were quite a surprise to Jim, who didn't even know he was to receive these awards until the day before the ceremony.

Girl Scout Troop Holds Cook-out In City Park

Junior Girl Scout Troop 523, met together as an entire Troop for the first time since the Sierra Madre School, has been on double sessions.

The occasion was a cook-out at Sierra Vista Park, on June 9. Among those present were: Mollie Bennet, Beth Brady, Barbara Cline, Bonnie Curtis, Leslee DePalma, Tina Fabula, Mariann Firth, Ann Green, Della Harrison, Melissa Hendrix, Kimberly Hutchinson, Laura Hutto, Jenny Koulouras, Kate Kiebert, Sally McCormac, Shelly Menon, Robin Morse, Tammy Nign, Valerie and Vanessa Peterson, Elsie Raphael, Heather Stratton, Janice Szerszen, and Jane Toms.

Troop leader Mrs. Koulouras, was assisted by Mrs. Nign, Mrs. Hendrix, and Mrs. Firth.

For six weeks, Jim and his friend Pete Van Kuran, will be at Fort Lewis, in Washington for extensive training. Both men are graduates of La Salle and in ROTC. They plan to drive up in Pete's VW and start early to get a little sight-seeing in.

Jim is also a member of Kappa Delta Rho of Lambda Chapter. They require that a student maintain a high grade point average in order to remain a member. For the past two years this fraternity has had speakers at the graduation.

D. S. Tiller 'High Honor' Student

Honors at graduation were announced for 86 seniors at the University of California, Riverside.

Those tapped for honors on the basis of academic achievement were selected by a faculty committee from the list of 534 UCR graduates receiving bachelor's degrees during the 1966-67 academic year.

Ten students were selected for "highest honors," 23 for "high honors" and 53 for "honors."

A Sierra Madre resident was among those included in the "high honor" list. He is David Sheridan Tiller, B.A., political science.

Only gas dryers work for just 2¢ a load.

- It actually costs even less than 2¢ a load with gas.
- Any other kind costs 3 times as much.
- During the lifetime of your dryer you may save enough with gas to buy yourself a new one.
- On installation costs alone, gas can save you up to $150.
- No dryer dries clothes faster, fresher or fluffier than a gas dryer.
